Offering solutions to your most common problems:

One Call Shopping

With more of the brands you want, and more of it on the shelf, Motovicity can fill your complete order with one phone call, and ship your order that same day.

Easy Ordering

Call, email, or log-on, we make it easy to get the parts you need, when you need them. And our sales staff can help you find the right parts for the job quickly and easily.

Technical Sales Team

Our sales team has years of experience researching and installing the parts we sell, so we know what you need to get the job done right the first time. No order takers here.

Shipping Rates

Always less than retail, we can oftentimes priority ship products for less than the typical cost of ground shipping.

No Extra Fees

We quote your final price. We don't tack on unnecessary handling fees or charge you extra to have your order ship the same day.

Free Online Shopping

We know that your business doesn't follow a 9 to 5 schedule, so our website is available 24/7 to place orders or to check stock. Our website's year/make/model search immediately processes so you can have confidence that you will receive your order as quickly as possible.

Delivery, Delivery, Delivery

When you buy from Motovicity, you can be sure your orders will ship quickly & accurately; arriving on-time either at your shop or to your customer.

Drop Shipping

We can ship directly to your customer utilizing our industry leading shipping rates with no additional fees – saving you money.

Wholesale Only

We don't sell to the end users. We don't have a hidden retail website. We don't have a hidden retail store. We only sell to businesses like yours so we don't compete against you!

Committed to the Industry

As an active member of SEMA and the SEMA Street Performance Council, we support the kinds of events and activities that matter most to our industry. We work closely with industry media to cultivate enthusiasts and bring more business to your door.
